

Recognition Guidelines

Best Delegate Award

This is the highest award in the committee.

Criteria:

- Consistently drives substantive debate forward.
- Demonstrates mastery of the Rules of Procedure, using them effectively and correctly.
- Delivers clear, persuasive, and impactful speeches.
- Actively contributes to draft resolution creation and leads initiatives.
- Works cooperatively with a wide range of delegates to build alliances.
- Plays a major role in writing, amending, or defending resolutions.
- Engages actively in both moderated and unmoderated caucuses.
- Handles and resolves crises and challenges diplomatically.
- Meets the criteria for the Best Position Paper award.

Diplomacy Award

Recognizes delegates who excel in cooperation, negotiation, and bridge-building.

Criteria:

- Demonstrates respectful and inclusive behavior toward other delegates.
- Focuses on compromise and solution-driven approaches.
- Mediates tensions and fosters collaboration.
- Builds consensus even among conflicting blocs.
- Maintains diplomatic decorum at all times, even under pressure.
- Recognized as a peacemaker or coalition-builder.
- Actively participates in lobbying without dominating discussions.
- May not be the loudest speaker but significantly contributes to the committee's productivity.

Best Position Paper Award

Awarded for excellence in pre-conference preparation and content.

Criteria:

- Demonstrates a deep understanding of the topic, background, and country policy.
- Incorporates well-researched, properly cited facts, statistics, and relevant events.
- Proposes feasible and creative resolutions backed by previous frameworks and actions.
- Follows a clear structure, correct formatting, and adheres to submission guidelines.
- Contains no AI-generated or plagiarized content.
- Demonstrates proficient use of relevant, professional, and formal terminology.

Honorable Mention Award

Recognizes standout delegates who impressed the chairs and made a notable impact.

Criteria:

- Delivers passionate, captivating, and creative speeches.
- Maintains a memorable presence in the committee through wit, bold stances, or unique perspectives.
- Demonstrates growth or significant improvement throughout the conference.
- Makes a significant contribution to a key event, clause, or bloc that warrants recognition.
- May be a new delegate who demonstrated satisfactory conference performance despite limited experience.

Best Delegation Award

Awarded to the school or university delegation that demonstrates the highest overall excellence across all committees.

Criteria:

- Earns the highest cumulative number of delegate awards, with greater weight given to higher-tier awards.
- Maintains a high level of professionalism, teamwork, and diplomacy throughout the conference.
- Demonstrates strong delegation unity, coordination, and strategic involvement in committees.

Best Chair Award

Recognizes the most outstanding committee chair for exceptional leadership, fairness, and contribution to the conference.

Criteria:

- Maintains impartiality, professionalism, and control over committee proceedings.

- Demonstrates an in-depth knowledge of the topic, Rules of Procedure, and diplomacy.
- Guides debates effectively, ensuring a productive and engaging committee environment.
- Provides constructive feedback and assistance to delegates to enhance their performance.
- Facilitates a fair and inclusive discussion where all delegates have the opportunity to speak.
- Handles crises, procedural matters, and challenges with composure and authority.
- Plays a key role in making the conference a valuable learning experience for all participants.